Why?
Financial companies choose how they share personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our member, we will not continue to share information as described in this notice except as permitted or required by law.

How?
All financial companies need to share member personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their member’s personal information; the reasons that Painesville Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.
